Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 18 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 18, N is not clearly defined.

Claim 22, no antecedent basis for "the address table".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 15-24 are, insofar as definite, rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rao, 6,041,389.

Rao, 6,041,389, discloses in Fig. 2 a computer system comprising:
nonvolatile ferroelectric random access memory (FRAM) cell arrays 202 (see lines 57-67, column 5);

volatile CAM array 207;

data bus 208;

address bus 209;

CPU microprocessor (see lines 7-18, column 4).

Input/output circuitry 213 obviously including address table to store addresses and receiving external address ADD0 to ADDY, data table to store data words DQ0 to DQZ and providing all control signal and system clocks to control the system.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-14 are allowed.

8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The method as recited in claims 1-14 has not been found in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
